Heasley Field Is Dedicated

Approximately 100 people attended the dedication ceremonies in Sierra Vista Park last Saturday morning in which 200 Little Leaguers, their managers and coaches participated.

The Little League baseball field was officially named the James C. Heasley Field, thus honoring the former veteran of the Sierra Madre Police and Fire Departments. The dedication was made by Webster Vannier who represented the Sierra Madre City Council in place of Mayor James, who was unable to attend.

FOLLOWING the presentation of the colors and the Pledge of Allegiance, led by Boy Scouts of Troop 376, Frank Barbour, master of ceremonies, introduced William C. Coulson Jr., president of the Sierra Madre Little League, who recognized the sponsors and supporters of the boys' baseball program and expressed appreciation for their vital support as well as the work of the managers and coaches, each of whom was introduced.

Charles Abbe spoke briefly as chairman of the Sierra Madre Baseball Association, parent group of the Little League, and as president of the association last year and now president of the Babe Ruth League, thanked the community for its support. "Tip" Wofford, district Little League representative, also extended best wishes.

CHARLES BROWN, Fire Department chief, who spoke of the affection felt by the community for the late Mr. Heasley, was followed by Mr. Vannier, who made the official dedication of the baseball field by authorization of the City Council. This was memorialized by a period of silence in tribute to Mr. Heasley's memory.

Dave Sommers, recreation director, then introduced the managers of the two teams playing the first game of the 1959 Little League season—William Treder, manager of the Dodgers, sponsored by Don Jackson, Men's Wear, and Dean Irvin, manager of the Royal Drug Oracles.

Carl Engle of the Music Shop supplied and set up a public address system, which included a 45-minute stereophonic musical program on tape. The address system was also used to announce the Dodger-Oracle game.

The Orioles won the first game of the season, 3-1, behind the two-hit pitching of Matheson who drove in one run and also scored on Castagna's double which scored two more runs.

CEC Profit Totals $340,490 In First Quarter

Consolidated Electrodynamics Corp. yesterday reported first-quarter consolidated net earnings, after taxes, of $340,490, according to Philip S. Fogg, president and board chairman.

He noted that net income included $136,493, or approximately 13 cents per share, from profit on the sale of 5,000 shares of Burroughs Corp. stock during the first quarter.

Total earnings of the company are equivalent to 32 cents a share, compared with a 1958 first-quarter net loss of $274,220, or 26 cents per share, after adjustment for year-end writeoffs not apparent at the time results were reported in April, 1958. Pre-tax earnings of $624,490 compare with a 1958 adjusted first-quarter net loss of $539,620 before tax carryback credit.

First-quarter sales were $10,238,000, compared with $6,986,000 recorded during the first three months of 1958.

Children's Art Show Is May Library Feature

The Gallery of the Sierra Madre Public Library will feature next month an exhibit of art by children from six grammar schools in the surrounding area.

Demos Set Meeting on Education

A meeting devoted to public education will be sponsored by the Sierra Madre Democratic Club on Monday, May 4, at 8 p.m. at the home of Kenneth Moyer, 46 N. Mountain Trail.

The public is invited.

Cancer Fund Drive 8% Above 1958

Cancer Crusade contributions from Sierra Madre are running 8 per cent ahead of 1958 records, according to Mrs. Hugh Colvin, American Cancer Society residential chairman for the city.

The current total, however, is still $800 short of the final figure for 1958, she reported in urging citizens and business firms who have not yet made their Crusade contributions to help put the city over the top.

On behalf of the ACS, Mrs. Colvin thanked the citizens of Sierra Madre who, both as Crusaders and as contributors, have responded so generously to the Crusade appeal again this year.

Cancer Crusade funds, she said, support the Society's year-round crusade against cancer through research, education and service to cancer patients, carried out on national, state and community levels. These programs, she added, are helping to save thousands of lives each year from cancer.

A number of requests have been received, she said, from citizens asking if they could still send in their Crusade contributions for this year.

Contributions sent now will be included as part of this year's Cancer Crusade funds, she advised, and will be credited to the Sierra Madre Crusade record.

They should be addressed to the District Office, American Cancer Society, 180 S. Euclid, Pasadena.

Council Sets Public Hearing May 26

A mass protest was presented to the City Council Tuesday night regarding plans for a Catholic girls' high school in the 13-acre estate of the Sisters of St. Francis, 675 W. Highland.

A total of 47 persons signed statements of protest, including 14 who live on Michillinda in Pasadena. The Planning Commission has already approved the project. The City Council set Tuesday, May 26, as the date for a public hearing.

THE COUNCIL also granted a business license to Bethany Home for Girls and continued the hearing on the Rasmussen zone change.

Protesting the proposed high school were 13 property owners from Grand View, seven from Highland, six from Montecito, seven from Wilson, and 14 from Michillinda in Pasadena.

Their protests were based on the following allegations:

1. The school would cause property values to deteriorate.

2. It would create hazardous traffic conditions.

3. Adequate parking has not been provided for in plans approved by the Planning Commission.

4. Promises were made in the past to the effect that a high school would never be built on the property, and that plans to build a high school were rejected at about the time Dr. John Barlow sold the property to the Sisters of St. Francis.

5. Taxes will be lost to the city of Sierra Madre.

6. There is no need for another high school in this area, particularly since one is now being built in Victory Park, only a short distance from Sierra Madre.

No serious objections were raised by property owners when the Planning Commission authorized the construction of the high school eight days ago.

If finally approved by the City Council, the school is expected to open in September, 1960, and eventually will house 500 girls in grades 9 through 12.

IN THE Bethany Home dispute, the Council, by a vote of 3 to 1, approved the granting of a business license. Before the license expires, however, the home must receive a favorable report from an agency expert in the field. Otherwise, a license presumably will not be granted in 1960.

Voting against the license was Councilman Webster Vannier who argued that the Council is not competent to decide problems of this nature.

Either the County Probation Department, the State Department of Social Welfare or some similar agency should approve of the home's operation before a license is granted, Mr. Vannier said.

Defending the home before the Council were Monte C. Fiscus, acting chairman of the Board of Directors, a public accountant, two staff members, the president of the Pasadena Woman's Club and others.

Allegations that the girls had been estranged from their parents, that proper records were not kept, and that the staff is incompetent, were all denied.

IN THE Rasmussen zone change problem, about six residents of Esperanza protested plans for a proposed new street.

The street would run from Baldwin, behind businesses on Sierra Madre Blvd., make a left turn at the Carl Hansen Ford Agency and continue south to Esperanza along the private driveway owned by Mr. Hansen.

John Rasmussen, owner of Rasmussen Appliances, wants land he owns behind his store rezoned to R-3, a move which would permit him to construct an apartment building. The land is now zoned for commercial purposes.

City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington is now proceeding under the 1903 act, the first step toward the construction of the street.

Under the act, the city can obtain land, either through acquisition or easements, to build a street so long as 51 per cent of the property owners in the area agree.

Philip Jacobs Wins High Spot In Gym Meet

Philip A. Jacobs, 18-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Nathan Jacobs, placed among the top athletes in national A.A.U. gymnastics competition last week at the State University of Massachusetts in Amherst.

Philip, who performed on the still rings, placed among the first 12 in the preliminaries and came in eighth in the finals.

A freshman at Pasadena City College, Philip flew to the athletic meet with another competitor from PCC, Robert Lynn of Pasadena.

YES Group Explains Tax Needs

The YES Committee compiled the following information to answer two of the questions Sierra Madreans are asking about the coming school tax election—"Why is a new tax limit needed now?" and "How about annexation with Pasadena?"

First, Sierra Madre school costs have risen like all other costs, because of faculty expansion, increases in salaries, larger enrollment and subsequent equipment and materials increases, greater tuition payments to Pasadena, higher operations and maintenance costs, and some administration cost increase.

THE AMOUNT of state aid has decreased. State aid is based in the amount of assessed valuation per child, which is determined by dividing A.D.A. into total assessed valuation. Therefore, as assessed valuation in Sierra Madre increases, assistance from the state decreases proportionately, as illustrated in the table at right.

As state aid decreases, the amount which comes from local taxes for education must increase.

The YES Committee feels that since the cost of education for the immediate future will exceed the anticipated revenues from all sources, the new tax limit must be established just to keep even with the current education program. If the tax limit is not approved, the program must be cut about 16 per cent.

ANNEXATION to Pasadena has been suggested as a possible solution, instead of a new tax limit.

Joining with Pasadena may take one of two courses: annexation or unification.

Annexation may be achieved by means of petition for election, requiring signatures of a majority of registered voters in Sierra Madre and an election.

For annexation by July, 1960, this process must be completed by Feb. 1, 1960.

Unification may be achieved by means of a request from both School Boards involved to the County Committee of Reorganization for a study of the merits of unification.

This method requires the participation of the local school boards involved, local public hearings, recommendations to both the county and state for election (or no election) in both Sierra Madre and Pasadena, if demanded by the two communities. With the present commitments of the County Committee, this process would take about two years.

THE YES Committee feels that, regardless of the merits of joining Pasadena, no action can take place soon enough to solve the problem of educating Sierra Madre this coming year.

The Committee also feels that Sierra Madre would prefer a thorough study of the merits of joining Pasadena, before taking any definite action. In the meantime, Sierra Madre public schools must still be financed by local taxes, so that the educational program will not deteriorate to the point that Sierra Madre students would not be prepared well enough to enter junior high school on an equal footing with students from the elementary schools in Pasadena.

Mrs. Viola A. Tuttle Succumbs at 104

Mrs. Viola Ann Tuttle, Sierra Madre's oldest resident, died Sunday in a Los Angeles Hospital. She was 104 years old last March 28.

Born in Zanesville, Ohio, in 1855, Mrs. Tuttle was in vigorous health almost until

She enjoyed good food and, in fact, ate with gusto, but she never smoked or drank.

Mrs. Tuttle lived most of her life in Chicago where her husband, Henry, was manager of the Lyon and Healey Piano Co. He died in 1926. She moved to California in 1945.

A competent musician, Mrs. Tuttle's favorite instruments were the piano, guitar and zither. She also composed music for these instruments.

AMONG EARLY experiences was the unusual one of sitting in the lap of President Buchanan, chief executive from 1856 to 1860, and of writing a song for William Jennings Bryan when he was running for the Presidency. She also remembered the Civil War.

Mrs. Tuttle had 12 children, four of whom survive. They are two sons, Henry Tuttle Jr., head of the Academy of Music in Chicago; Jack Tuttle, a former Navy diver who is now in the Fiji Islands; and two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Kamaka of Hawaii, and Mrs. Lola E. Marshall, 43½ Sierra Pl., Sierra Madre, with whom Mrs. Tuttle made her home.

Also surviving are 40 grandchildren, 52 great grandchildren and 28 great great grandchildren.

FUNERAL SERVICES will be held Friday afternoon at Turner and Stevens Mortuary in Pasadena.

Mrs. Marshall has been attempting to contact as many relatives as possible before making specific and final arrangements for the funeral.

THIS SNAPSHOT of Mrs. Viola Ann Tuttle was taken shortly before her death. She was 104 years old March 28.

the day she died. When in her early 90's, for example, she won a dancing contest in Chicago.

Although old physically, she was young in spirit throughout her long and productive life. She did not permit any of her legion of relatives to refer to her as "grandma" and she seldom mentioned her age nor would she tolerate others talking about her advanced years.

SHE TOOK exercises every day up until a week before she died and she was under a doctors' care only once—a week ago when she was taken to the hospital.

Red Cross Short of Goal

Funds are still urgently needed by the local chapter of the American Red Cross, Mrs. Adelaide Miller, executive secretary, reported yesterday.

The Red Cross, she said, has so far collected only $4,500. The goal is $7,700.

Only about one-third of the envelopes left at homes by volunteer workers have been returned to the Red Cross. Mrs. Miller urged those who have received envelopes to please send them in.

NEARLY 200 BOYS, most of whom are shown in this photograph, Vista Park. In the game that followed the ceremonies, the Orioles helped give the Little League season a rousing sendoff last Saturday defeated the Dodgers in a tight contest by a score of 3 to 1. In addition morning at the dedication of the James C. Heasley Field in Sierra to players and coaches, a large crowd of Sierra Madreans saw the game.

Salute to the Friends

Our community Library, sometimes treated as a poor relation by the city government, has a rich cousin in Sierra Madre.

The Friends of the Library proved beyond doubt last week that its members are among the best relations an organization could have. The Friends certainly are not rich in terms of money, but in enthusiasm, drive and a dedication to their cause they are wealthy beyond measure.

THIS WAS dramatically illustrated by the book sale, the results of which far exceeded expectations. The sale netted more than $800, including books valued at $600 which the new and able librarian, Miss Ruth Cain, picked out and put on the Library shelves for use by the public. The actual cash raised—$221.42—was donated to the Library for the purchase of new books.

In addition, the Friends sponsor the superb motion pictures shown monthly in the Library, which are free of charge, and also arrange monthly art shows by some of Southern California's top painters.

The Friends of the Library is truly a remarkable organization. Its members and officers are not demanding; they don't ask for publicity when none is warranted, and they accomplish their good deeds with a minimum of fanfare and fuss.

WHEN TOTALED up over the years, the figures probably will show that the Friends has contributed more to the cultural life of Sierra Madre than any other single organization.

The group helps make the town a more pleasant and rewarding place to live. Our hats are off to the Friends, to its hard-working officers and dedicated members.—H.W.E.

Letters to the Editor

ANTI-BOY CAMPAIGN

Dear Sir: The anti-boy campaign is growing.

A trusting second grader just dropped the latest "Bulletin to Parents" from the Sierra Madre School in my lap. It contained the usual headings: Coming Events, Kindergarten Milk, etc., and this week a new one, Marbles.

Under this new heading, it says: "Marbles. Children have been bringing marbles to school for some time and have greatly enjoyed marble games at recess. However, the marbles are getting to be a problem and we would like to request that no more come to school this year."

This is good, clean, forthright thinking—"if a problem exists, remove the source." Science, government, medicine, industry have thrived on it. Small boys won't.

MARBLERIES, mibbs, miggs, are as much a part of growing up (education) as all the state-sanctioned books and activities that are offered in the local classrooms. Any man who can remember knows about marbles—the skinned knuckles, the aching thumb, the hole in your right pant leg, the comfortable rattling bulge of ownership in your pocket when you won—the empty pockets of defeat when all you had left was your shooter and the determination to do better tomorrow.

Marbles are round and smooth—marbles are to feel, to count, to just look at, to own, to fill cigar boxes with, to hoard, and when you're a man—to hand down to your son. Marbles are one of the few remaining refuges of boyhood against the ever-encroaching adult with his organized "fun."

We, in Sierra Madre, have filled up the vacant lots and laid concrete sidewalks over the old marble playing strips. At last we have all the little savages herded onto their chain-link reservations, and now in the "Bulletin to Parents" we are asked to remove marbles from the curriculum of our young men.

FOR SOME time Marbles have been allowed at Sierra Madre Schools as long as they were not played for "keeps." ("Keeps," for the benefit of non-marble players, means that you get to keep what you win. We went along with this and insisted that our marble player play only for "funnies" during school hours. Because playing for keeps is gambling, and who in his right mind would send a young man trained to gamble into our society?

A boy of today who would gamble a marble worth a fifth of a lollipop (on his own skill) might conceivably grow into the kind of man who would squander a part of his paycheck on the stock of American industry. He might even risk his money on the wild chance of going into business for himself.

Once the seed of gambling has been sown there is no telling to what depths he might sink. He might even buy real estate on the chance that his stakes would double. He might wager (pay premiums) with insurance companies. He might sneak our nights and play bridge for a 20th, or go to the races, or play Keno at the church bazaar.

voted playing marbles for "keeps" at school in the interest of good citizenship. But vetoing marbles altogether because they are "getting to be a problem," will be a difficult thing to explain to a boy while you are frisking him each morning before school.

Slingshots, switch-blades, and breakable bottles of fuming nitric certainly have no place in our classrooms. But marbles?

If parents are going to be asked to conspire against their young men they at least should be given a better reason than "Marbles are getting to be a problem."

If our system continues to hack away at every remaining expression of individuality in our young men and keeps organizing them into adult-controlled "teams," grading them on their ability to "integrate," forcing them to play "by the numbers" with adult-written rule books in their hand, it won't be long till all we have is a bunch of blank-faced little sunuchs.

FREEWAY FRENZY

Dear Sir: The Pasadena East-West Freeway kettle boils over at regularly intervals with schemes ever wilder as the brew becomes more concentrated. The most recent effusion calls for the removal of Santa Fe Railway and the dedication of the area vacated to motorized survival of the fittest.

The present single-track railway has ample capacity to handle as much traffic as the proposed multiple-lane freeway. The reason why it is not used to full capacity is not obsolescence but an unholy picture of haywire economics and cockeyed politics, known as government transportation policy.

The tracks today are heavier but otherwise unchanged from a century ago. The trains, dispatched from electronic classification yards by centralized traffic control, differ from former wodd burners as planes from oxcarts. The negligible rolling resistance of flanged wheel on steel rail has never been equalled. Impressive tonnage trailed, not carried, by power units insures economy of man power not possible on highways. The ultimate efficiency of rail transport has not yet been approached.

The space consuming inefficiency of highway transport has demonstrated an alarming appetite for formerly taxable real estate. Our most ambitious super-highway empire builders are unable to expand the paved arena furiously enough to keep up with the deluge of vehicles.

It behooves city fathers to pull aside their automotive blinders from time to time to see where they are going. If they do not, Crown City may share the fate of the nearby metropolis, which on the ruins of Pacific Electric, is turning into an impenetrable asphalt jungle.

Let us have an east-west freeway, but let it not like a strait jacket encase the city and still serve it well if permitted to do so. The latest freeway deal reminds us of a horse trade attributed to Abraham Lincoln—an iron horse for a saw horse!

Very respectfully,
E. Fritz Schumacher

BURNED UP

Dear Sir: To say that I burned up when I read that "so-called satire" on our leading "citizen" would be putting it mildly.

Our "leading citizen" says, "Mafia, never heard of it—what is it?"

Would "Black Hand" or "Camorra" be more familiar? Then to have our writer repeat same—what a grim joke.

For our two innocents, I recommend they read the May Reader's Digest, Page 66, called "Brotherhood of Evil: The Mafia."

I can't wait to see if our leading citizen joins our now famous or should I say infamous "Fifth Amendment Club." Also, if you'll print this over my alias.

Around the Square

By Tommy Ann Miller

It was good to be caught out in the rain, Saturday afternoon—and to smell and taste the first drops as they stirred up dusty dust which has been gathering during the 62-day drought. The showers saved April's feverish face and freshened flowers for tomorrow's May baskets.

DON'T FORGET the Walpurgis Nacht festival tonight atop von mountain—featuring original incantations by them which is witches.

DIDDY DEPARTS. Diddy (Kathryn Hurvit) sailed for Hawaii aboard the Lurline, last Wednesday, in a shower of confetti, streamers and "Bon Voyages!" from her parents, the Ralph Hurvits.

Diddy has planned and saved for this trip since graduating from Pasadena City College two years ago. She and a friend, Elaine Lewis of Arcadia, will stay at the Reef Hotel in Honolulu until they get an apartment—and a job. (And even if they don't find a job—it will have been a heavenly vacation!)

O.K., FIREMEN—you can pull that unclaimed prize Easter basket out of the deep freeze. The missing Golden Egg (which wasn't bagged during the hunt last month) has finally turned up.

Brad Crehan, four-year-old son of the John Crehans of East Mira Monte, discovered the Golden Egg while burrowing in the park bushes for a lost ball.

RABBI'S REUNITED. Rabbi Charles W. Steckel appeared on television's "This is Your Life" last week because he's an old friend of Rabbi Max Nussbaum—whose life was featured on the program.

Doctors Steckel and Nussbaum (now a rabbi in Hollywood) met in 1928 while students at the Jewish Theological Seminary in Breslau, Germany.

SHORT-LIVED excitement at the Library Book Sale—when a $100 bond dropped out of a book donated by one of the sale helpers. Turned out the bond was cashed in 1939—worse luck!—and had been tucked in the book merely as a souvenir.

The library, incidentally, had a privileged "rummage" through donations before the general public arrived—and reportedly found much-needed volumes for the Library valued at nearly $600.

MAGAZINE MODEL. The cover on the April issue of Better Homes and Gardens features former Wistaria Queen (1949) Jackie Thurston—now Mrs. James Belknap—of Laguna Beach, Jackie, daughter of Virginia Robertson of North Lima, is shown on the cover with two of her children, Bonnie, seven, and Bert, four.

FERN DAPPER and children, Geri Ann and Jeff, are back in the foothills at their Foothill Avenue house following several months at Orcutt (near lovely Lompoc) where head of the family, Harold, is engaged in construction work. "Dap" makes the long trek down here on weekends to be with his family.

TORTISE TRAVELS. Another vagrant tortoise has turned turtle-wise—and this makes the seventh to be found around the neighborhood in a short period. Is there a tortoise farm nearby?

Owner can claim by identifying same. (Clues: It measures six by five inches, with a hump-height of three inches—and it chews each bite of lettuce 27½ times).

CORBENA AND SPOT Fin Croaker were biting three at a time on Norman Dumas' hooks (he used blood and rock worms) in the Ocean-side surf last weekend. Other lucky fishermen were: Fred Richter and son, Rickey, Al Richter, Hermon Cook, Dick Campbell and son, Ron, and Al Apfel—who bunked in the Dumas trailer.

Leadership Lack Could Hurt Demos

By Robert G. Spivack

GIVING THE JOINT A BAD NAME—The editors of the "Ohio Penitentiary News" at Columbus are dismayed by some of the things going on behind the big gate. Some, it seems, has been stealing the inmates' razors, a Parker "51" pen, talcum powder, deodorant sticks, chop ham and a pair of gloves. Things got so bad the editors recently made this plea:

"We are appealing to each inmate to help eliminate these low-type characters that are in our midst."

Somewhat this story seems appropriate in detailing some of the things that have been done—or not done—by the present Congress dominated by Messrs. Lyndon Johnson and Sam Rayburn, the gentlemen from Texas.

IT IS now almost five months since Congress has been in session. Hundreds of minor bills have been disposed of, but even the writers most sympathetic to Johnson are hard-pressed to think of anything important that has been achieved thus far in the Senate.

So far as Rayburn is concerned, he has managed to get himself into a box in a way that does not do much for his reputation as a master politician. At the beginning of this session the House liberal Democrats, led by Rep. Frank Thompson of New Jersey and Chet Holifield of California, tried to persuade Rayburn to broaden the membership of the House Rules Committee. The Northern and Western Democrats said they were fed up with the way the 76-year-old Rep. Howard W. Smith, the Byrd Democrat from Virginia, was tying up legislation.

Rayburn, who sometimes acts as if he thinks Smith is just a bad kid, refused to curb his authority by adding new members to the committee. He did pledge, however, that if any important legislation were tied up by Smith's coalition with conservative Republicans he (Rayburn) would personally intervene to break the deadlock.

Sure enough Smith has now bottled up the public housing bill, which is opposed by the real estate lobby. Rayburn thus far has done nothing publicly.

THE JOHNSON-RAYBURN PATTERN—Johnson and

Rayburn both think of themselves as fairly enlightened, even, liberal Democrats. Their critics now ask: Wherein does their liberality lie?

A few weeks ago Johnson got himself in a jam from which he has not yet extricated himself. The Senate had passed a more restrictive bill. What happened then?

Johnson let Sen. Harry F. Byrd, the right-wing Virginian, head up the Senate team which met with a House committee to iron out differences between the two bills. Byrd was opposed to the legislation his own house had passed, so he proceeded immediately to surrender to the House conferees. The result was just what you might expect; the more restrictive bill prevailed.

Why did Johnson let Byrd ast as Senate spokesman for legislation he opposed? The supposed reason was protocol. Byrd is chairman of the Senate Finance Committee which originally considered the legislation. This, of course, was patent bunk.

IN 1957 when the Civil Rights bill passed the Senate, Johnson by-passed Sen. James O. Eastland as one of the Senate-House conferees, even though he was head of the Judiciary Committee which originally considered that bill. Eastland was just too much out of line. His selection was bound to be construed as an act of bad faith, just as Byrd's was.

The lack of leadership by Johnson and Rayburn could rob their fellow Democrats of the issues they need to win in 1960.

Lee Shippey asks What Do You Think?

Writers of two-gun fiction do a wonderful job of evoking a wilder West than ever was. It was because murderous gun-slingers were exceptional that they became noted, just as it is today. Indeed, I wonder if there aren't more fast-draw men in the West today than ever before.

Every 6-year-old kid I know practices fast draws with his toy pistol, and we continually hear of grown up infants who accidentally shoot one another while practicing fast draws. The real Old West was a land of hospitality and fair treatment for most of those who came in peace.

HOWEVER, most of us Californians do not realize how much of the real Old West we still possess. Within 20 minutes drive from my home in Del Mar I can be in open range cattle country and at Santa Isabel Indian Mission the other day I was told by the priest in charge that he serves the Indians of 10 reservations, all in San Diego County.

That surprised me so I made inquiries, and Ralph Rogers of the County Welfare Department told me there are 19 Indian reservations in the county, though only 16 are tenanted at the moment.

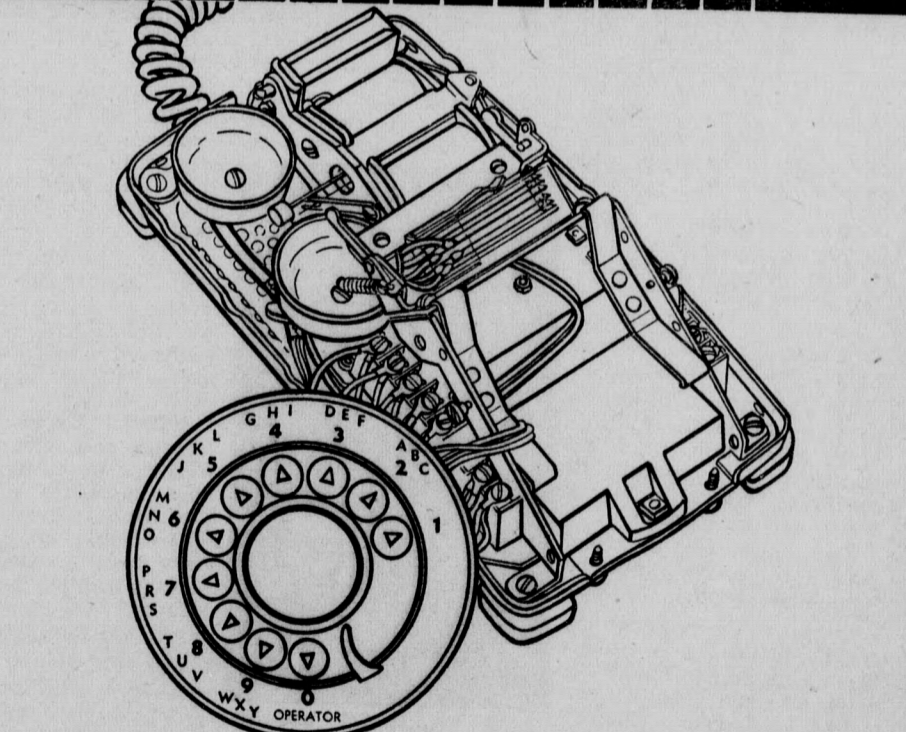

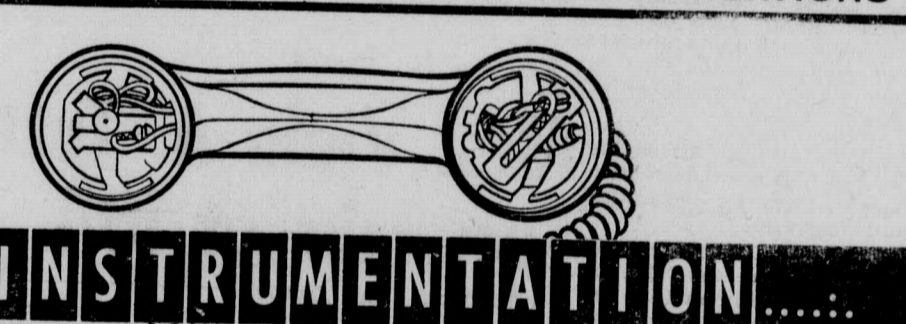

All the land is owned by the federal government—which makes it tax free, of course—and is held for the use of the Indians. They can leave it to take jobs, but can return to it if and when the jobs fade out.

So many go away, Rogers said, that the constant population of the reservations is only around 1200 and the Pala reservation is the only one which has its own store and community life. The Indian children are picked up by school buses and taken to county public schools.

I HAVE no idea how many Indian reservations there are in California—and am too lazy to find out—but in past years I have visited some in Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino, Inyo and Mono Counties, and there must be quite a few more in the High Sierra. It staggers me, though, to realize San Diego is growing so fast that any day now a new subdivision may find itself in the lap of an Indian reservation, and already cattle ranches are being turned into subdivisions.

I doubt that any other city in the world is in comparable position, size and growth considered, though the same trend is visible in many parts of California.

She carried a cascade bouquet of wild white iris and blue delphinium.

THE MATRON of honor, Mrs. Frederick Whitmore, wore a pale blue silk organza frock with a dropped waistline and full skirt, gathered in the back with a bow. Her headpiece was a Dior bow in matching material. She carried a colonial bouquet of blue delphinium.

The best man, Lt. Dana Murton, brother of the groom, traveled from Chautau Air Force Base in France for the wedding. The guests were seated by Lt. (j.g.) Lawrence C. Jensen and Lt. (j.g.) David Meacham.

The mother of the bride wore a deep turquoise silk and Chantilly lace sheath and a corsage of pale yellow rose buds.

Fuchsias Reach Perfection In Southern California

Every once in a while, California gardeners should stop what they're doing and offer up a prayer about Fuchsias. For nowhere else that we can think of do they reach such perfection.

Small wonder that so many people go overboard on Fuchsias. They are exotic flowers, yet so inexpensive that anyone can have several varieties in his garden. They are easily grown, yet so profuse in bloom that one should feel guilty about getting so much for so little. Most of all, they are adaptable.

THIS LAST might have been ridiculed not too many years ago. The shadeloving Fuchsia was thought to be ill adapted to warm valley areas. Yet, today, countless valley gardeners can attest to their worth. They do, of course, need extra shade and water in the warmer areas, but that's a small price to pay.

Fuchsias have other needs, too—definite ones. You can kill them with water, for instance, if drainage isn't perfect. And you can inhibit their ability to bloom if shade is too deep. High overhead shade or filtered sunlight is much the preferred climate condition.

Soilwise, give them loose rich soil with peat or steer manure worked in before planting and a mulch of either to conserve moisture afterwards. A member of the California Association of Nurserymen can give you local tips for growing.

AS TO variety, your choice is limitless. Among upright growers, you can't go wrong with such beauties as Rubro, a pink and red; San Leonardo, an all-red; White Wonder, a red and white double despite its name; Pink Cloud, a single; and Flying Cloud, a double white.

In the hanging basket types, Swingtime, a double red and white; Tinker Bell, a single white and pink; and Southgate, a double in soft pink, are three favorites. And all reports on last year's new Pink Galore are good. It is a beautiful solid rose pink, truly a worthy addition to the long line of lush varieties that make up California's Fuchsia paradise.

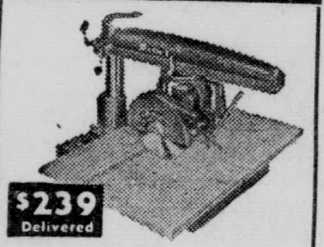

She means so much to you!

Dr. Barnhart to Discuss 'Success' At Sunday Sermon

"Success is Natural" is the sermon-topic of Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister of the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 778 S. Rosemead Blvd., at both the 9:15 and 11 a.m. worship services Sunday morning, May 3.

Nature teaches us that "success is natural." The invisible pattern at the heart of the seed naturally takes form and comes to fruition when the conditions are maintained under which the law of unfoldment can operate.

The same law of unfoldment operates in the realm of ideas. Through understanding and cooperation with it, the life of any individual may bear the stamp of success. However, the happiest and most successful man is the one whose life is bearing the fruit of God's ideas, for this man is in tune with the creative purposes of God referred to in John 15:8.

"Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit, so shall ye be my disciples," Dr. Barnhart will discuss this subject further next Sunday.

The Wednesday morning Bible classes held at 10:30 a.m. are being devoted to the promises in the Bible and how to experience them in every day living. This class, conducted by Dr. Barnhart, includes group participation in the reading and discussion of the Bible references. It is open to the public.

Bethany Youth To Participate in Area Conference

The youth of Bethany Church will participate this weekend in the Los Angeles County Christian Endeavor convention. Sessions will convene in the First Brethren Church of North Long Beach.

Mrs. Schaper will be the soloist for the Friday evening service, and Pastor Schaper is assisting. He will be installed as the pastor-counselor for 1959-1960.

Rev. William Widbin will be the guest speaker at the Wednesday night prayer service on May 6.

Dr. Schaper will continue his series of messages on "The Dinner Parties of Jesus" this coming Sunday.

Witnesses to Hold 4-Day Meet in Del Mar

Announcement of a four-day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses for Southern California was made by Jerry Steinberger, presiding minister of the Temple City Congregation. It will be held at the Del Mar Fairgrounds, San Diego, June 4-7.

"The Del Mar grandstand and adjacent buildings will be transformed into a giant place of worship for the four-day assembly," Mr. Steinberger stated, "with an expected attendance of 20,000 from Southern California."

There will be 34 assemblies throughout the United States, Canada and Great Britain during the summer.

'Prophet Ezekiel' Is Rabbi Einhorn Sermon Topic

Rabbi Ephraim F. Einhorn, spiritual leader of Temple Beth David of the San Gabriel Valley, will speak on "The Prophet Ezekiel" at the Family Shabbat Service, Friday evening, May 1, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Clair Wolsey, 50 W. Haven, Arcadia, will deliver the invocation and recite the Blessing of the Lights.

The Temple Choir will participate in the service with Mrs. Charles Lich of 710 Encino Drive, Arcadia, at the organ.

Pastor Hansen To Talk on Value of Prayer

"Do You Pray Enough?" will be the sermon of the Rev. Ray E. Hansen at 10 a.m. Sunday at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. The choir, directed by Mrs. Evelyn Clauson, will sing "Prayer," by Cherubini.

Pointing out that too often praying tends to become self-centered, the pastor commented that praying for others widens and heightens thoughts, selfishness melts away, the one praying becomes more Christ-like and mankind is blessed.

A rally for all young people will be held at the church at 7 p.m. Sunday, when the Luther League meets to elect new officers and enjoy an evening of recreation.

Sierra Madre Site Of Youth Hostel Rally

Sierra Madre was the site for the American Youth Hostel Rally last weekend.

The rally was at Sierra Madre Nature Friends Clubhouse at 423 Yucca Trail, and started early Saturday morning with a hike to Mt. Wilson.

Forty people stayed throughout Saturday night and Sunday. There was group singing, Saturday night plus slides of Europe and other entertainment.

The annual rally marked the highlight of national field representative Bill Nelson's visit to the Los Angeles area to establish hostels along the West Coast.

Nelson said: "Countries abroad afford the opportunity for our young people to travel economically (usually by bicycle as mode of transportation) by staying and eating at Youth hostels. With the exception of New England, we in America don't offer this opportunity to our young adults or foreigners."

AYH has a council in Los Angeles and includes all surrounding territory in the county.

The organization sponsors such outdoor recreational activity as biking, hiking, camping, horseback riding and skiing. Their philosophy (in part) is to enjoy and appreciate the beauty of simplicity.

Fear of being found out keeps a lot of people on the straight and narrow path.

LESSON-SERMON

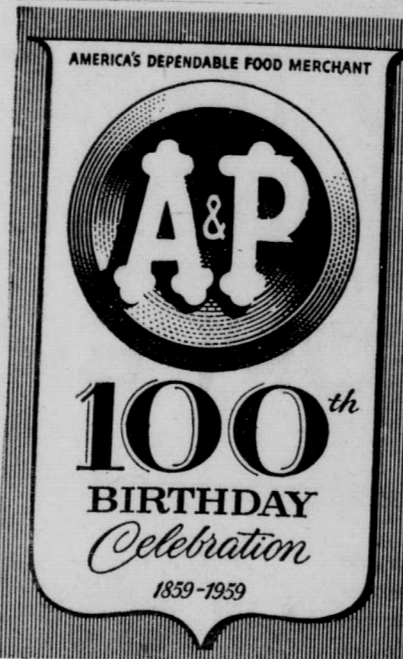

That evil is its own punishment in all Christian Science churches Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon on "Everlasting Punishment" to be heard in the Golden Text from Proverbs (13:21), "Evil pursueth sinners; but to the sinner, good shall be repaid."

See here, MacNally, let's be specific: "Fine Union fuel" can mean either New 7600 (powered like a premium, priced like a regular) or New Royal 76 (the West's most powerful premium). Which will it be, sir?

Delta Zetas Plan for Butterfly Ball May 2

Delta Zetas of the Pasadena Foothill Alumnae Chapter and their friends are looking forward to a gay evening Saturday night at their Butterfly Ball in the ballroom of the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel. A cocktail hour will precede dinner at 8 p.m. and dancing at 9.

Decorations will depict an oriental spring theme, with large gossamer butterflies predominating. Spring blossoms and oriental figurines will be used as table decorations. Each woman ball guest will select a small butterfly from a manzanita branch to enhance her gown.

Co-chairmen of the ball are Mrs. Roy M. Billings and Mrs. Wallace Short. Other committee members are Mrs. Price Harrelson, Mrs. Martin Thompson, Mrs. Ronald Mason, Mrs. King Karpen, Mrs. James W. Merrill, Mrs. Clark Staves, Mrs. Lon Boen, Mrs. Fred Barner Jr., Mrs. Ray P. Phillips Jr., Mrs. Paul Johnson, Miss Donna Sandquist and Miss Barbara Griffith.

Benefiting from the dance will be the new student award, established by this alumnae chapter last year, to be presented to an outstanding Southern California scholar at Gallaudet College, Washington, D.C., the only college in the world to grant full academic degrees to the deaf.

Gallaudet College, a national philanthropic interest of Delta Zeta, offers preparatory classes for those deaf students who are unable to secure a high school education in their own states, as well as a post graduate course to those who are specializing in the teaching of the deaf, in addition to its regular college curriculum.

Robin Hardison Celebrates 13th Birthday

The Charles R. Hardisons' garage, 1255 Leonard, was transformed into a "dance palace" when their daughter, Robin, entertained her friends in celebration of her thirteenth birthday anniversary.

Gay posters papered the walls and a profusion of balloons hung from the ceiling.

Those in attendance to take their turns executing the "hop" and other popular dances were Pat Burke, Debra Caffee, Carol Cairncross, Cathy Chapler, Ann Harris, Malinda Hays, Lora Krotz, Elsie LaMar, Maya Morse, Diane Sullivan, Gale Tampico and Suzanne Wynn.

Also, David Brown, Robert Captain, Greg Cole, Bob Jenker, Stormy Meason, Stephen Wilson, Skipper Newton, Tim Paxson, Tim Roswell, Charles Roth, Joel Rudnick and Ralph Thorgrenson.

Don Benito PTA Delegates To Attend State Convention

Mrs. Rodney Carley and Mrs. David Lifton, recently elected president and first vice president, respectively, will be Don Benito PTA's official delegates to the 60th annual convention of California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Miss Grace McFarland, principal of Don Benito, will also attend as a delegate. Among others attending certain events of the convention as representatives are Mrs. Christine Erikson, 5th grade teacher, and next year's teacher representative to the PTA; Harry Brown and C. R. McCormick, who will attend the men's participation dinner at the Statler-Hilton Hotel on May 7; Mrs. Heimbruch, Mrs. Edward Mayo and Mrs. Donald Ridenour, who will sing with the Mothersingers in a program at the Shrine Auditorium on May 7.

The monthly board meeting of Don Benito PTA will be held Wednesday, May 6, at 7:45 p.m. in the school auditorium.

May Day will be heralded at Don Benito with spring room parties sponsored by the PTA on May 1 in all the classrooms of the school. Room mothers and assistants will provide home-baked cookies and the PTA will serve pink lemonade. Mrs. David Hurford, Room Mother chairman, is in charge of the party plans and activities.

VILLA VIEWS

By Toni Maurin
SYCAMORE 7-9634

Go gang, go. Now we all have another hour to work. I was feeling pretty good about all I accomplished per diem until I read an article saying that American women work harder than any other women in the world. Now, I don't mind working at all—matter of fact, I sort of enjoy it. What I don't like is working so hard and then reading all the articles about subservient women from abroad who make our American men so happy. Seems like there just isn't any justice. We get it in the neck any way we turn.

I've got a good idea, though. Our women could go abroad and marry foreigners, and probably make them happier than their own women. Their women can come here. That way we would be bound to have world peace, 'cause we'd be so mixed up no one would know whom they were mad at!

THE ROY G. Johnstons of Villa Mesa have been running a junior grade hospital most of this spring. Early in February Mrs. Johnston's mother, Mrs. Mae Harmon of Sierra Madre, sustained injuries in an automobile accident. She spent her recovery time at the Johnstons', and I'm happy to say she is fully recovered. Their daughter, Judy, recovered from a severe bout with the flu in time to enter the debating competition with the PHS team in Redlands. She followed that by debating in the tournament at PCC last Friday night, and this Saturday she will participate in the finals of the State Speech Tournament at Santa Barbara. Good luck, Judy.

Brother Robert has been confined for almost two weeks by a bout with pneumonia. Mrs. Johnston says, and I quote, "I don't have much news."

THE CARL Mounters of Sierra Madre Villa enjoyed a musical dinner party recently. The choir of the Assumption Church held a potluck dinner at their home.

LAS VEGAS seems to be more and more attractive to our Southlanders. Mr. and Mrs. William Sandberg of Old House Road and Mrs. Gilbert McCoy returned last week from a three-day holiday in the warm desert sun. They stayed at the New Frontier.

THE JOSEPH Philipsons, also of Old House Road, also spent last weekend vacationing there.

MR. AND MRS. Arturo Gutierrez of Fairpoint Ave. had a dinner last week to introduce their new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Reynolds, Mr. Frank Ascencio and ourselves.

CONVENTIONING from Mesita Road were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Siechert and Mr. and Mrs. John Griffith. They went up to Santa Barbara for the Rotary Convention. The Griffiths went up a couple of days early to spend a little time with Mrs. Griffith's brother outside of Paso Robles.

ALSO ON Mesita were Mr. and Mrs. John Biggar, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zook and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fox; they all joined the Pasadena Kiwanis Club in their Honeymoon Weekend at Aliso.

MR. AND MRS. John Griffith have good reason to be proud of their daughter, Kathy. She has been chosen as American Field Service Exchange student to represent PHS. A junior there, she was chosen on the basis of her service, activities, citizenship, intelligence, adaptability and personality. Her goal in Europe will be to improve relations and learn more about the people and country she visits. As yet she has not been told by the main office in New York that does all of the screening of students to go abroad, just where she will be sent. However, she is planning on spending the entire summer on the trip.

James Stivers in Race For City School Board

James N. Stivers, 3890 Shadow Grove, long active in Pasadena and Hastings Ranch affairs, will seek election to the Pasadena school board June 5.

Mr. Stivers, partner in Stivers & Co., contracting and investment business which owns and operates more than 100 apartment units in the Pasadena area, is now and has been for several years active on citizen investigative and advisory committees for the school board.

A resident of Pasadena since 1929, Mr. Stivers was educated in Pasadena schools and was graduated from Long Beach State College. He and Mrs. Stivers have three children in three public schools in Pasadena—Kathy, 10, Eugene Field; David, 14, Wilson Junior High, and Jim, 16, Pasadena High.

For many years, Mr. Stivers said, his principal civic interest has been public schools, and that he was encouraged to run for the

Howard E. Baker Host Barbecue

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Baker, 1335 Michillinda, were hosts last Saturday night at a barbecue.

The party included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Asher, Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Halperin, Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus L. Pruitt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Kaponya, Mr. and Mrs. George Moffatt, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Thomas, Mrs. Helen Berryhill and Mrs. Isabel Rodolf.

Ranchettes

Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Stube, 1375 Coronet, are the parents of a daughter, Sharon Rose, born April 15 at St. Luke Hospital, weighing 7 pounds. The maternal grandmother is Mrs. Kate Gould of Pasadena. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stube of Detroit, Mich. The other Stube children are Richard, 15; Elaine, 14; Marlene, 10, and Mary Anne, 5.

A second daughter, Carol Louise, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Stuart H. Zuck, 1400 Coronet, March 26 at Huntington Memorial Hospital weighing 6 pounds, 7 ounces. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Cuimette of Evanston, Ill. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Zuck of Lake Forest, Ill. The other Zuck daughter is Christine, 5.

Field PTA Seeks Books For Library

If your book shelves are overflowing, the new Hastings Ranch Branch Library would be happy to have your extra volumes.

Since the book collection at the new library is very low, the Eugene Field PTA is sponsoring a book drive, urging each family of the 470 at Field to furnish at least one volume.

There will be a box for book donations at the school Wednesday night during open house, as well as at PTA meetings May 20 and June 3.

Others in the area who wish to give books to the neighborhood library may drop them off at the library or give them to PTA members.

Mrs. Samuel Joseph, PTA president, said children's books particularly are needed, that books should be in good condition because re-binding is a costly operation, and that the library already has a supply of book-club selections. She said money gifts for books are welcome and that books may be inscribed with the name of the giver or of some one memorialized by the gift.

Sierra-Hastings Camp Fire Log

Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls of the Sierra Hastings District, comprising Sierra Madre schools and Eugene Field and Don Benito in Hastings Ranch, will have a just-for-fun skating party from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Moonlight Rollerway.

The affair will be private and only for members of the Sierra Hastings groups.

TAMI-KA-DA Camp Fire Girls, seventh graders from Wilson and Marshall Junior High Schools, held their second annual party at Camp Chiquita Friday night. The girls planned the party and decorated to carry out a cruise to Hawaii theme, using travel posters, flowers, leis and refreshments in the motif.

Girls were Kathy Orswell, Barbara Shanks, Marlene Griffin, Jamie Johnson, Peggy McGraw, Karen Sue Cummins, Marilyn Lee, Susie Sabin, Susan Hurtig, Ann Lubisch, Jeanne Jennings and Karen Buttane.

FORUM FILM

Marion Dix will bring to the Community Forum her all color film of the Philippines today, April 30, at 7:45 p.m. in the Monrovia-Duarte High School Auditorium. This is the story of how the young Philippine Republic, a product of our own historically unique experiment, pulled itself out of post-war chaos.

Many a man condemns himself by revealing the faults of others.

ARE WE TRYING TO GET OUT OF THE PASSENGER BUSINESS?

Some people seem to think we don't want to run passenger trains.

This is a matter of great concern to us because running trains is our business and we expect to be running them for a long time.

So we want you to know just how we feel about the important passenger side of our business:

- 1 We want to run passenger trains that you need and use. We welcome passenger business and we hope more people will ride our trains.
- 2 We want our passenger trains to be good trains. We think our passenger service is as good as any in the country... and we intend to keep it that way.
- 3 We feel, however, that it is sensible to limit our service to trains and schedules which many people need and use, and to discontinue those which few people use and which are obviously no longer needed.

More and more people are traveling by automobile and by air, fewer by train. But we have not been sitting idly by while the public's travel habits changed. We've spent millions of dollars in the last ten years on new passenger train equipment, and more millions promoting our service.

In spite of our efforts, some of our trains have been carrying very few passengers.

We think it is better for everybody—for you and for us—to reduce or eliminate poorly patronized train service which causes heavy losses. Such losses become a burden on freight shippers and industry, and impair our ability to serve this great and growing Western region.

Hastings Hill

Ranch Wrens and their sister organization, Hasty Hens, will frolic Saturday night at their annual Spring party—May Day being the theme of this one. May baskets will center the tables at the Flamingo, where dancing will begin at 9 p.m. and buffet supper will be served at 11 p.m.

Members and their husbands will gather first for cocktails at the Jack Atkinson home (Mary is Wren president this year. Wrens working on party details are Dorothy Taylor, Theo Calmer and Darlene Whitlock. Hens busy on the affair are Cec Sweet, Rhoda Smith and Ann Hart.

Add to European travelers from the Ranch the Ove Jensen family, who left last week and probably won't be seen in these parts before summer is over. It seems they have an old family home beside some sea or other, and if the mood strikes, they may decide to spend several months there.

Expect to see a number of Hastings Ranchers at tonight's "Promenade in Pasadena" at 8:20 at the Civic, when John Green will conduct, academy award winning pianist Andre Previn will solo, drummer Shelley Mann and that mean bass fiddler Red Mitchell will be featured. Proceeds will aid Pasadena's diagnostic Tumor Clinic.

Sunday afternoon will find many more "Ranchers" back in the Civic, but this time they'll watch their children perform in dances taught through the Pasadena Recreation Department. The time on this 2:30 p.m.

Jadie and Hal Leffingwell wended their way, in their new white, four-place T-Bird with the pretty red leather interior, to Monterey Peninsula for their annual get-together with Ann and Frank Cary, former Ranch residents now making their home in Atherton, Calif. The reunion is always the same time of year so Ann and Hal can celebrate their birthdays together.

The Leffingwells weren't the only Ranch residents in the Carmel-Monterey locale last weekend. B. J. and Ted Donald also were there for the Western rugby games. On Saturday, Ted refereed for the teams from the northern sector on Carmel High School grounds and for the championship game between Athens Club of Oakland and Vancouver, B.C., team, played at Ft. Ord on Sunday. While in Carmel, they visited with his sister and her husband, who is principal of Carmel High School.

Jeanne Cumiskey, our local authority on antique dolls and founder of the foothill area Doll Sorority, was guest speaker last Tuesday at a meeting of the Pasadena section of 20-30 College Club. She displayed and discussed her prize-winning dolls shown at fairs, museums and hobby shows, as well as telling members the origin, materials used in making and the value of dolls brought to the meeting. Nancy and Austin Munger returned last weekend from a two-week holiday. After visiting friends in Oklahoma City they stopped in Juarez, Carlsbad, Tombstone and other ghost towns.

New Medicines Can Help Memory Retention in Aged

(Presented as a public service by the Foothill District of the Los Angeles County Medical Assn.)

QUESTION—What is angina pectoris? How does it differ from a heart attack? What is the life expectancy of a person with this condition?—B.R.

ANSWER—When one develops hardening of the arteries that nourish the heart (coronary arteries) blood flow to the heart muscle is impaired. Under resting conditions the heart may receive adequate nourishment. If the heart is called upon to perform greater work, however, an adequate blood supply cannot reach the heart muscle, due to the narrowed coronary arteries. The heart muscle reacts by sending out pain impulses, and these are interpreted by the patient as chest pain. This is angina pectoris.

One may have angina pectoris for many, many years. It differs from a "heart attack" in that circulation to a portion of the heart muscle is actually obliterated in the case of a heart attack.

Properly treated, a patient with angina pectoris may live a long and fruitful life. A great deal can be done to prevent and alleviate the chest pain and alleviate the development of coronary thrombosis or occlusion (heart attack).

Q—Please discuss the condition known as "upside down stomach."—D.E.

A—This type of hernia is usually due to a congenital defect in the opening between the chest and the abdomen through which the esophagus passes to the stomach. A part of the stomach sometimes herniates through this opening into the chest causing what is known as a hiatal hernia.

This is a very common condition and is found frequently during the course of X-ray studies of the stomach. Only occasionally does it cause enough trouble to require treatment. When treatment is necessary the hernia can be repaired. The repair is approached either through the abdomen or the chest, depending on conditions in the individual case.

Q—Can you offer any advice for my aging father's forgetfulness?—M.J.

A—Forgetfulness is a condition so common with aging that it becomes accepted as nearly normal. Excluding serious diseases and accidents, it is usually the result of one or all of three common conditions:

1. Cerebral arteriosclerosis and small strokes.
2. Changes in association pathways in the brain.
3. The working of Thorndyke's Law: "Within an hour, 90 per cent of what older people read or hear is forgotten, because of mental laziness and habit."

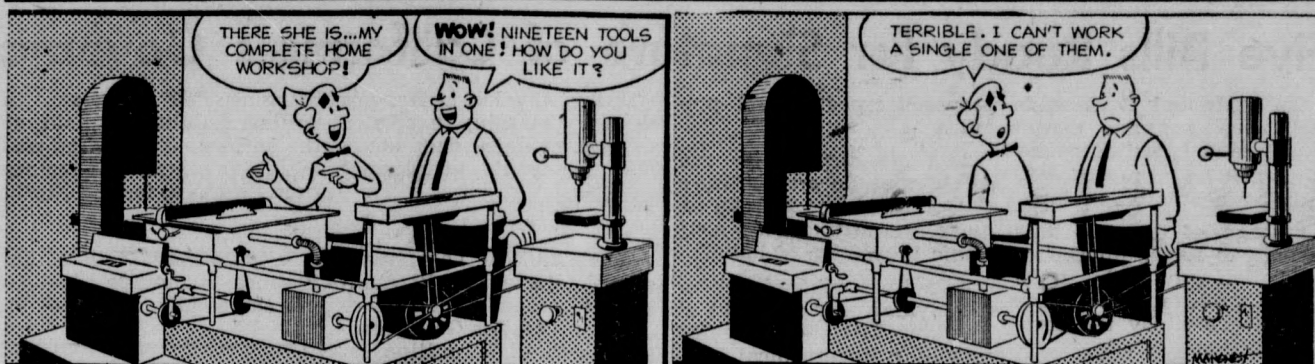

Naturally, the best therapy for this is the continuous use and exercise of the brain, especially in new fields. However, combinations of the classes of nicotinic acid, cerebral vasodilators, and certain anabolic agents now available may be of considerable help if taken properly over a long period of time.

Business Activity Hits Record in Southland

Business activity in the southern half of California reached a new record high in March, according to Security First National Bank's monthly summary of business conditions.

The bank's findings were revealed this week by E. W. Wiegel, vice president and manager of Security's Foot-hill and Rosemead branch.

At 203.3, the bank's index is 13 per cent above the recession low point at March, 1958, the banker reports.

MARCH WAS the 12th consecutive month to show an increase in the index, and the 6th consecutive month to register an all time high.

Volume of "help wanted" advertisements in Los Angeles newspapers increased substantially in March. This new, sensitive indicator reflects a tightening in the labor market, particularly in the demand for skilled workers.

Unemployment in Southern California declined nearly 8 per cent between February and March, somewhat more of an improvement than usual for this period. Seasonal factors considered, the number of persons reported unemployed in the Los Angeles area in March totaled 5 per cent of the labor force. Corresponding ratio for nation is 5.8 per cent.

TOTAL EMPLOYMENT in the southern half of the state increased by nearly 25,000 between mid-February and mid-March, the branch manager revealed. Seasonal factors considered, total employment is at an all-time high in nearly every section of the Southland. Employment gain over year-earlier period for Los Angeles-Long Beach metropolitan area is 4.5 per cent. The increase nationally was 2.4 per cent.

Department store sales, another business barometer, increased 15 per cent over March, 1958, reaching a new record level for the month. March was the second successive month that this category reached a new all time high.

Mr. Wiegel also pointed out that recently released official bank deposit totals compiled and published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System reveal that California now has the third and fourth largest banking centers in the nation.

AS OF JUNE, 23, 1958, the Los Angeles-Long Beach metropolitan area had bank deposits amounting to $8,287,081,000—a total exceeded only by the New York and Chicago areas. San Francisco-Oakland area is now in fourth position, having passed Philadelphia between mid-1956 and mid-1958.

Only seven states in the nation have larger bank deposit totals than in the Los Angeles metropolitan area, the branch manager says.

Five Bills Ready for Signature of California's Governor

Gov. Edmund G. Brown's legislative program moved ahead with startling speed this week as he prepared to sign five new bills into law.

Passage of the five bills brought to 10 the number of legislative proposals made by the governor which have been approved by the State Assembly and Senate.

Most far-reaching of the new bills ready for Gov. Brown's signature was one authored by Assemblyman William A. Munnell (D.), Los Angeles, killing California's 46-year-old system of cross-filing.

Signing of the bill will eliminate the practice under which a political candidate could run on the ballot of an opposition party. This often resulted in the candidate's capturing both nominations.

Also before the governor for signature this week:

1. A bill authored by Assemblyman Thomas M. Rees (D), Beverly Hills, and Sen. Richard Richards (D), Los Angeles, requiring the Department of Public Health to set standards on auto exhaust emissions.

The bill, also introduced at the request of the governor, is a major point in Brown's proposed smog control program.

2. A bill authored by Assemblyman Robert W. Crown (D), Alameda, at Brown's request, permitting the electronic tabulation of ballots.

3. A bill authored by Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins (D), Los Angeles, providing for medical care for the needy disabled, also introduced at the governor's request.

4. A bill authored by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh

(D), Los Angeles, at Brown's request, curbing excessive interest charges and gouging tactics in installment purchases.

Gov. Brown last week signed into law a bill authored by Assemblyman Bruce F. Allen (R), Los Gatos, dedicating the $172 million investment fund to the development of a state-wide water program.

This bill was a key measure in Brown's program for bringing northern water to Southern California and at the same time providing water, flood control and recreational projects for the North.

A SUBCOMMITTEE of the Finance Committee also approved a bill authored by Sen. James A. Cobby (D), Merced, at Brown's request to create an Economic Development Agency to assist businessmen interested in locating new plants in California.
